

The background of the poster is a rich, deep red with a subtle floral pattern. At the top, a golden sunburst or halo surrounds a chalice containing a host. Below this, a large, ornate tree with green leaves and golden fruit (possibly pomegranates) stands centrally. Two large, detailed angels with golden wings and halos are positioned on either side of the tree, both with their hands clasped in prayer. The angel on the left wears a blue robe, while the one on the right wears a gold robe. A banner draped across the tree reads 'ARBOR VITAE'.
